AWARDS AND HONORS

Educational Awards and Honors

- Awarded Native American Research Center for Health (NARCH) fellowship 2014-2016.
- Awarded the American Indian College Fund Scholarship, 2011-2012, 2014-2016.
- Awarded the Massachusetts Indian Association Scholarship, 2015-2016.
- Certificate of Completion. Technology of Participation (ToP). ToP Facilitation Methods. Fargo, ND. September 18th-19th, 2014.
- Awarded the Cancer Health Disparities Fellowship at the University of Minnesota. The fellowship is awarded to three pre-doctoral and three post-doctoral fellows, all studying cancer-related health disparities. The six fellows worked closely with their academic and community mentors, as well as psychologists, physicians, epidemiologists, and community organizations to address community-identified problems that can exacerbate cancer-related health disparities. These problems can range from risk factors for cancer like obesity, smoking cessation and nutrition to health care access and immigrant health issues that affect cancer treatment. The fellowship provides a $21,500 stipend, tuition, fees, and subsidized health insurance for up to three academic years. 2012-2014.
- Selected as a 2011-12 Center for Integrative Leadership (CIL) Student Leadership Team member. Each year CIL brings together a diverse, multi-disciplinary team of ten graduate students from across the University of Minnesota's graduate and professional schools to explore and advance the concept of integrative leadership. Students are selected every September through a competitive application process. As a student leadership member, I have been given the opportunity to development my personal leadership skills, and to collaborate and work closely with faculty and students across disciplines.
- Awarded the American Indian Graduate Fellowship 2011-2012.

- Awarded the Spirit of Eagles Scholarship, 2011-2012.
- Awarded the Association of American Indian Affairs Scholarship, 2011-2012.
