Seller's Instructions

The seller is not required to verify the purchaser's ID number or determine the purchaser's registration requirements. (GA requires the seller verify the purchaser's ID number.) The seller is required to maintain proper records of exempt transactions and provide those records to the state when requested in the form in which it is maintained. These certificates may be provided in paper or electronic format.

The seller is not liable for any tax, interest, or penalty if the purchaser improperly claims an exemption or provides incorrect information on the certificate, provided all the following conditions are met:

1. The fully completed exemption certificate is provided to the seller at the time of sale or within 90 days subsequent to the date of sale;
2. The seller did not fraudulently fail to collect the tax due; and
3. The seller did not solicit customers to unlawfully claim an exemption.

Note: A seller may not accept a certificate of exemption for an entity-based exemption on a sale made at a location operated by the seller within the designated state if the state does not allow such an entity-based exemption.

Drop Shipper Instructions: The drop shipper may accept an ID number to claim the resale exemption as provided above in the Purchaser's Instructions. The ID number may include an ID number issued by another state. This may result in the same ID number being used for multiple states to claim the resale exemption (e.g., a retailer or marketplace seller may only be required to register for sales tax in one state).

Based on the information you have furnished this office, we find that the University of North Dakota, qualifies for exemption from Wyoming sales/use tax under W.S. 39-15-105 and 39-16-105.

This exemption extends to all purchases by the organization in and for the regular charitable functions and activities of the organization. Purchases by the organization of services and tangible personal property used to provide benefits to members or employees, such as housing, clothing, transportation, food, etc., would not be exempt the tax.

As a charitable organization, your occasional sales for fund-raising purposes are also exempt from sales tax under W.S. 39-15-105 and 39-16-105. However, if you make regular or routine sales for fund-raising purposes, such regular sales are not exempt. If such sales are made by your organization, you are required to obtain a Wyoming Sales/Use Tax license and file regular tax returns with this department for your sales. If you have any questions about the classification of sales made by your organization, we urge you to submit written evidence of your activities and request a ruling.

This exemption does not extend to personal purchases made by employees or members of the organization, nor to contractors who may be performing for the organization. Purchases made by employees or members of the organization with later reimbursement by the organization are subject to the tax. Copies of this letter must be furnished to your suppliers along with the properly completed Certificate of Exemption. Please find enclosed a Streamlined Sales Tax Agreement Certificate of Exemption. Your revenue identification (RID) number is 225102.

Finally, should there be a change in the condition of your organization (i.e. IRS designation, name, address, or charitable condition) you are required to notify the Department immediately to obtain a current determination. Should you have any questions on this or other sales/use tax matters, please contact the Department of Revenue at (307) 777-2459.

Sincerely,
