Qualifications: Non-university individuals who provide goods and services to the University must apply for a Business Parking Permit (K Permit) annually. All permits requested are subject to review by Parking Services. This application must be completely filled out and include the signature and phone number of a representative of the company.

Terms: The permit you are issued can be only used for legitimate business. Use of this permit by anyone not authorized or by an individual not conducting official business, will be considered false registration and carries a fine/revocation of the permit. The permit may not be transferred or used by anyone other than who the permit is registered too, group or individual. The registered permit holder is responsible for all citations associated to that permit.
